Matti Brax is a European Patent Attorney at Papula-Nevinpat. He is also a partner in the company.

Matti stepped into the world of patents in 1995 from the Laboratory of Space Technology at the Helsinki University of Technology (now Aalto University) where he was working as a research engineer. After working nearly two decades as a patent attorney, he became a corporate patent agent in a Finnish electronics company. Later on, Matti resumed his career as a patent attorney, and finally joined our team at Papula-Nevinpat in 2017.

Matti has long-term experience in serving as a Finnish member of the Council at the Institute of Professional Representatives before the European Patent Office (EPI), and he has also served in the Boards of the Association of Finnish Patent Attorneys, and the Finnish Association for Corporate Patent Agents.
