

KHARITONOVA ANNA

Patent Specialist

 +358 9 348 0060

 eurasian-patents@papula-nevinpat.com

Anna Kharitonova is a patent specialist at Papula-Nevinpat. Her responsibilities include assignments, licenses, transfers of rights, and changes in invention and design matters for Russia and other Eurasian countries. She also deals with invention and design registration processes and protection in Russia, other member states of the Eurasian Patent Convention and Uzbekistan. In addition, Anna handles legal issues relating to inventions and international applications under the PCT, and conducts searches.

Anna has been working at Papula-Nevinpat since 2000.

Languages

Russian, English, German

Education

Saint Petersburg State University of Culture and Arts, Translator (2000)